

We're Looking for an Assistant Fundraiser to Join the TANF Ghana Team

About TANF

The Anidaso Nsae Foundation (TANF), based in Accra, Ghana (West Africa), is making an impact by providing underprivileged children and families with access to free education and healthcare. At TANF our vision is to contribute to having an educated and healthy community, breaking free from the cycle of poverty.

The Role

Interested in strategic fundraising for a good cause? Let's talk! We are looking for the right candidate to take on the role of a Assistant Fundraiser to support TANF's Fundraising strategy. You will work closely with the Fundraising Manager and TANF's founder on managing a variety of fundraising platforms (e.g. Global Giving), leading partnerships with corporates and working on a variety of fundraising campaigns and events.

Role: Volunteer basis – Flexible support

Location: From home / Anywhere

Starting Date: ASAP

Responsibilities

- Supporting TANF's fundraising strategy for 2017
- Assisting in managing existing and new strategic partnerships with individuals or corporate donors, other NGOs, charitable trusts and governmental institutions
- Organization of various fundraising online campaigns and events

Requirements

At TANF only three things matter to us when selecting new team members:

1. Passion for TANF's mission & vision
2. Dedication to contribute your time and make an impact
3. Passion for fundraising

Get in Touch

Interested in the role or intrigued to find out more?

Please contact TANF's founder: Laud Kwaku Akuffo: laud@tanfghana.org